

Edo-Tokyo Open Air Architectural Museum Expedition Map of the Life of Old Times

Let's look for the facilities you are ordered to find in the buildings that are indicated in this map as A-J

※ Please enjoy the "360° Panorama View" virtual tour on our website!

- Information
- Restrooms
- Restrooms (Wheelchair Accessible)
- Diaper-change unit
- Nursing room
- Ostomate-friendly restroom
- Automated external defibrillator
- Elevator
- Telephone
- Cafe
- Restaurant
- Free Wi-Fi

Find out kitchens!

Find out baths!

Could you find out toilets?

- 1 Kitchen Answer
- 2 Kitchen Answer
- 3 Kitchen Answer
- 4 Bath Answer
- 5 Bath Answer
- 6 Bath Answer
- 7 Bath Answer
- 8 Toilet Answer
- 9 Toilet Answer
- 10 Toilet Answer

Kitchens

People in Japan used to do their kitchen works sitting on the floor. They later came to use washstands so as they can do their works standing.

Farmhouse of the Tsunashima Family Built : Mid-Edo period (1603-1867) 1

House of Okawa in Den'enchofu Built : 1925 3

Mantoku Inn Built : End of Edo period to beginning of Meiji period 2

House of Kunio Mayekawa Built : 1942

Residence of Hachirouemon Mitsui Built : 1952

Baths

Most of houses in the Edo-Tokyo Open Air Architectural Museum have baths, but there were also many houses without baths in Japan long time ago. Which bath do you want to use?

House of the Leader of the Hachioji Guards (Hachioji-sennin-doshin) Built : Late Edo period 4

Mantoku Inn Built : End of Edo period to beginning of Meiji period 5

Second House of the Nishikawa Family Built : 1922 7

Tokiwadai Photo Studio Built : 1937

House of Kunio Mayekawa Built : 1942

House of Okawa in Den'enchofu Built : 1925 6

Toilets

It is said that the toilets in Japan long time ago often were dark and smelled bad. Urine were occasionally stored and used for fertilizer. As houses became equipped with water system, they came to have flush toilets.

Farmhouse of the Tenmyo Family (Collection of the former Musashino Folklore Museum) Built : Late 18th Century 8

Mantoku Inn Built : End of Edo period to beginning of Meiji period

House of Koide Built : 1925 9

House of Okawa in Den'enchofu Built : 1925

House of Kunio Mayekawa Built : 1942 10

Can you find out

Kitchens

Baths

Toilets

from different eras?

Let's think of how they are different from ours.

? What are they made up from?

Wood

Paper

Metal

Glass

Earth

Plastic

? How was water supplied?

? What fuel was burned there?

Electricity

Gas

Petrol

Charcoal

Firewood

Is there anything else that you found out?

